

Hotel Nikko Bangkok gears up for a grand opening in 2018

Thailand's bustling capital is brimming with hotel sector excitement as the first Nikko Hotels International property in the kingdom

March 2018 – Nikko Hotels International, the international hotel announced the opening of the new business hotel recently. The new hotel, now under completion, is expected to join the growing league of Bangkok's sophisticated, ultra-luxury hotels and is a sister property of another luxury property, Okura Prestige Bangkok, which is operated by Hotel Okura Co., Ltd., JAL Hotels' parent company.

Hotel Nikko Bangkok is expected to quickly carve a niche as one of the capital's premier hotels with its prime location, full-service facilities and Nikko's world-renowned brand of hospitality.

The new luxury hotel is centrally located in the lively "Japan Town," an area where many Japanese and other expats reside. "Japan Town" is now acknowledged as one of the city's trendiest neighborhoods with a wide variety of tourist hotspots — restaurants, bars, and shops – being located in the area.

The hotel's very own Hishou, a Japanese Restaurant; The Oasis, an all-day dining restaurant; and its chic Lobby Lounge, are seen as a welcome addition to the many already well-patronized hotspots in the area. Hotel Nikko Bangkok also boasts an elegant executive lounge, 10 banquet and meeting rooms that are ideal for all kinds of functions and events, a well-equipped fitness club, and a pool.

Proudly standing 20 floors above ground and with 4 floors in the basement, Hotel Nikko Bangkok is conveniently located near the city's major transportation hubs, with the Thonglor sky train station only a three-minute walk from the hotel. The hotel is also just 24 kilometers away from Bangkok's Suvarnabhumi International Airport.
